We will not call an owner for approval until an application is in hand and processed.

Cosigner applicants must meet the same criteria as the applicant except that income level must qualify them to pay his/her rent as well as that of the applicant. Roommates may not be guarantors. If one roommate is denied, the other roommate's application is cancelled. If one roommate is marginal, and requires a double deposit or guarantor, both applications will be processed completely and options offered the marginal roommate for approval. An approval code or completed report on the qualifying roommate would not be returned to the property until the marginal roommate has paid the extra deposit or obtained an approved guarantor. Marginal Actions may be approved with a guarantor or double deposit if only one category is marginal. The applicant may be required to pay double the regular deposit requirement. Double deposits must be paid by Cashier's Check or Money Order.
